Monte Vandever joined the KSU Extension Farm Management team in February 2016 as the Southwest Area extension agricultural economist, based in Garden City. He grew up on a farm in south-central Kansas with wheat and cow-calf enterprises. He received B.S. and M.S. degrees in agricultural economics from Kansas State University and a Ph.D. in ag economics from Purdue University. Besides working for K-State Research and Extension, he also has experience working with the Economic Research Service, (USDA), the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's Extension Service, and volunteer service in Vietnam. He has a special interest in risk management, particularly crop insurance.
